

Handwriting sheet: Precursive Arrow worksheet

Word list: our and oor words

In this word list, we're exploring words that use our or oor to spell the /or/ sound. These letter combinations appear in many everyday words, from four to floor, and can be found in both familiar and more complex vocabulary. By learning how these patterns work, you'll be able to confidently spell and pronounce words like court, mourn, and source. Check out the examples below and see how these words come to life in different contexts!

four

pour

court

course

mourn

source

door

floor

