

Spelling list: The ending ious

All these adjectives end in ious .

|            |                                                                  |
|------------|------------------------------------------------------------------|
| amphibious | Frogs, toads and many lizards are amphibious .            |
| curious    | I was curious to see how many people turned up.           |
| delirious  | He was delirious with happiness.                          |
| devious    | We came up with a devious plan.                           |
| dubious    | The evidence in this case is dubious .                    |
| furious    | He was furious when he found out the truth.               |
| harmonious | The sound of their harmonious voices rang out.            |
| impervious | She was impervious to his charms.                         |
| melodious  | She spoke with a calm, melodious voice.                   |
| notorious  | The bandit was notorious .                                |
| oblivious  | He was oblivious to the plan.                             |
| obvious    | There was an obvious attraction between the couple.       |
| precarious | His position as CEO was a precarious one.                 |
| previous   | I've met her on two previous occasions.                   |
| rebellious | The child had a rebellious nature.                        |
| serious    | The judge said it was a very serious crime.               |
| studious   | He was a quiet and studious person.                       |
| tedious    | The journey was tedious but the destination was worth it. |
| various    | There were various amusements at the carnival.            |

victorious

The victorious team celebrated in style.