Spelling list: Year 6, Term 1, Week 3: -ant, -ance, -ancy endings

Words that end in -ant, -ance and -ancy often describe qualities or people. Try breaking them down into the root word and suffix.

Life expectancy is the average number of years a person is expected to expectancy live.

guarantee

tolerant

I guarantee if you learn your spellings, you'll do well!

harass It is not kind to tease or harass other students.

hesitant John was hesitant to stand up and speak.

observant The security guard was very observant .

recognise I didn't recognise you with your new hair cut.

relevant That isn't very relevant to the conversation.

restaurant The food served at the restaurant was delicious.

Being tolerant means respecting people's differences, even if we don t agree with them.